

Privately owned news is an oxymoron.
There is no way for their to be unbiased views portrayed in a newspaper with advertising and stockholding interests.
Your recent mistake of allowing one company to own both paper and television news sources in an area (for most people their only sources) has closed defiled what free speech should be.